

Donations

Thank you for your generous donation offer or gift.

Monetary donations

The Maritime Museum of Tasmania is run mainly by volunteers. Your monetary contribution helps us to look after and display our collections, answer queries, produce our newsletter and continue to open our doors to the community.

Donating artefacts

The Museum's collections are mostly made up of gifts from the public and we are always grateful to be given the opportunity to consider donations. However, please note that not all offers can be accepted because of space, budget limitations and our collection policy.
